Message from the Pastor...

At the Monday May 17th Oktoberfest Money Give-a-Way, our parish was given $5,000.00 toward the new stairs and handrails that were completed earlier in the year. We have been so blessed by the generosity of Oktoberfest over the years to help us with a number of our maintenance and refurbishment projects. This donation, to help us with the stairs, will enable us to safely welcome all our guests who come for the concerts and tours of the church during the four days of Oktoberfest. This year the dates for the festival are September 16, 17, 18 & 19, 2010. The rest of the money for the stairs came from the estate of Clarence Schmidt for maintenance on the church building.

Matthew Kelly Thanks

Our parish was the fourth talk that Matthew Kelly gave during his time in Oregon. Bernadette Wagner was the coordinator from our parish and worked with the other parishes and coordinators to bring us this inspirational and spiritual message. Between 600–700 people from all over the Portland Metro area and beyond, as well as from the three sponsoring parishes of St. Edwards, Keizer; Sacred Heart, Gervais; and St. Mary, Mt. Angel. This “moveable feast” of spiritual encouragement and challenge was a great experience for all. Thanks to Bernadette and all her helpers

Vicariate Parishes / Pastoral Councils

This week St. Mary’s hosted the parishes of our vicariate: St. Paul, Silverton; St. Paul, St. Paul; St. James, Molalla; St. Luke, Woodburn; Sacred Heart-St. Louis, Gervais—for discussions about the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council. The purpose is to bring to Archbishop Vlazny pastoral needs and concerns to help set Archdiocesan Pastoral Priorities.

Gratefully, Father Philip Waibel, OSB, Pastor
